Award Ceremony for SLO County CWA Scholarships

San Luis Obispo - May 26, 2015 - On May 27, 2015, the San Luis Obispo County Chapter of California Women for Agriculture (CWA), will be awarding over $7,600 of scholarship to local 4-H and FFA members.

Scholarship award recipients include four San Luis Obispo High School Seniors, and multiple members of 4-H and FFA from the county. All 4-H and FFA award recipients are students taking animals to the California Mid State Fair. These scholarships range from $250 to $500 for sheep, swine and beef projects.

The award ceremony will take place at the Chapter's General Meeting. All award recipients and their families will be invited to the meeting along with all the members of the chapter. The meeting takes place at the Paso Robles Elks Lodge in Paso Robles, CA at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 27th

The SLO County Chapter of CWA raise scholarship funds primarily through their annual Burgers and Beer Fundraiser. The 6th Annual Burgers and Beer fundraiser will take place on September 6, 2015 at the Loading Chute in Creston, CA.

More information about the Chapter, including a calendar of events, and the Burgers and Beer Fundraiser can be found on the Chapter's website: www.cwaslocounty.com

The mission of the San Luis Obispo County CWA Chapter is to promote and protect the agricultural industry, to promote and develop the interest of California women involved or interested in agriculture and to promote a strong agriculture industry in San Luis Obispo County.
