California Women for Agriculture Welcome AG Week in San Luis Obispo County

San Luis Obispo, Ca – On Tuesday, March 18, 2014 San Luis Obispo Board of Supervisors presented the San Luis Obispo Chapter of California Women for Agriculture (CWA) with a plaque to begin the celebrations of Ag Week in San Luis Obispo County.

San Luis Obispo County proclaims March 23 to March 29, 2014 as Ag Week in San Luis Obispo County. Members of SLO County CWA were on hand to accept the proclamation with the San Luis Obispo Board of Supervisors.

Susi Griffiths, President, San Luis Obispo CWA, accepted the plaque and thanked the supervisors for their support with a short introduction speech about the San Luis Obispo County CWA Chapter. Susi also extended an invitation to the Burgers and Beer scholarship fundraiser event and the annual AG Mixer. Other San Luis Obispo County CWA Chapter members present included Lynette Sonne, Ruth Jensen, Ashley Ogden, and Angelina Dettamanti.

The 5th Annual Burgers and Beer fundraiser will take place on August 31, 2014. Please visit the chapter's website for more info, <http://cwaslocounty.com/calendarofevents.html>

The mission of the San Luis Obispo County CWA Chapter is to promote and protect the agricultural industry, to promote and develop the interest of California women involved or interested in agriculture and to promote a strong agriculture industry in San Luis Obispo County.
